Dear editor,

I submit to your consideration the manuscript “Inter-regional metric disadvantages when comparing countries’ happiness on a global scale. A Rasch based consequential validity analysis” of my own authorship. The manuscript extension is 2839 words (main text) and includes four tables and one figure.

This manuscript is product of original research conducted by my own. This manuscript is not currently being evaluated in other journals and has not been published or publicly presented before. There are not related presentations or manuscripts with secondary data analyses, all analyses were included in the submitted manuscript.

I declare no conflict of interest related to the design, execution or publishing processes of this research. This research did not imply any ethical issue as it was performed on secondary data sources.

Cordially,

DIEGO FERNANDO ROJAS-GUALDRÓN
